

“We can put on our flip flops and be on the beach in ten minutes”

Speedy buyers Martin and Bintare have no regrets about their fantastic Turkish villa

Martin Morris and his wife Bintare, aged 55 and 57, have just taken possession of their villa in Turkey, a process which has taken less than a year since they were wowed by meeting Turkish Connexions at last year’s NEC exhibition. But, while their journey to property ownership in Altinkum has been fast, especially considering Bintare had never even visited Turkey until this year, the couple knew they had made the right choice as soon as the wheels of their plane hit the tarmac.

The pair, from Chepstow in south Wales, had previously been considering moving to the Far East

(Bintare was born in Sri Lanka), but they had been recommended Turkey by friends who holidayed there regularly and after arranging an eight day break, they fell hard for Altinkum and the second house they ever viewed in Turkey – a stunning four bed villa with private pool they managed to secure for £127,500.

“As soon as we arrived in Altinkum, Bintare had a huge smile on her face” said Martin, “She seemed really comfortable and said she had a great feeling about the place. And because she was happy, I was!”

The couple were also hugely pleased with the service they received from

Turkish Connexions who have been there to hold their hands throughout the entire process, including taking them to local bars and restaurants in order to get accustomed to the area, something Martin felt was very important, especially considering that the couple are planning on relocating to Turkey full time.

“Lorraine at Turkish Connexions had lived in the area so she knew it like the back of her hand. She wasn’t afraid to tell us a few home truths, and she completely put our minds at rest. We knew that we wanted to be near the action, and we absolutely love where the villa is located. I can put my shoes on and ten minutes later be at the shops or on the beach.”

For our speedy house-buyers, there’s no hanging around. They already have the keys in hand and are currently spending money on the furniture for their home. Even though they’ve barely had time to sit down, the couple are clear that they have no regrets; “The people are friendly and the area is modern and welcoming. Plus, of course, the weather is incredible” says Martin.
